Algo asombroso (Spanish Edition) Chitra Divakaruni

Es tarde en la oficina de expedición de visados y pasaportes de una ciudad americana. La gente ha estado yendo y viniendo, pero ahora solo quedan nueve personas: una adolescente punki, una pareja caucásica de clase alta, un joven musulmán americano, una recién licenciada, un exsoldado afroamericano, una anciana china y dos empleados. De pronto, un terremoto rompe con la paz de la tarde y los atrapa a todos en el edificio. La lucha por la supervivencia hace que el estrés emocional y psicológico se acerque al límite, hasta que uno de ellos sugiere que cada uno cuente una historia personal, algo asombroso que haya ocurrido en sus vidas. De este modo, sus sorprendentes narraciones sobre el amor, el deber, la familia, la política y la muerte se van desvelando a la vez que dejan al descubierto la parte oculta de cada personaje y ayudan al resto a desviar su atención de la terrorífica situación que están viviendo. Una novela sobre los valores, la esperanza, el increíble poder de los relatos y la insignificancia de la condición humana en sí misma.
