"He was Midnight the dog.

I was Clover the cat.

We couldn't be friends,
and that was that."

So says Clover at the start of her tale, which is based on a true story. Angry and embarrassed after she hears Midnight laughing at her for being scolded, Clover sets out to chase a bird. Once in the tree, however, Clover finds herself in trouble. Who is chasing whom? How will she get down? Where is someone to help? Children will love this delightfully illustrated, gently suspenseful story and its touching, surprise ending.
