Secrets of the Heart JoAnn Jolley

Paula Donroe is a smart, beautiful, self-assured woman with an attitude—and a heart full of painful memories. She seems to be living the good life, but the heartbreaking decision she made twenty-two years ago won't leave her alone—especially on the one day of every year that reminds her of what she has lost. Not even a successful career and the love of her two young sons can erase the past and make her whole.

Will Paula find the healing she desperately needs? A disastrous encounter with two LDS sister missionaries raises barriers she may never overcome, and her son's growing friendship with the elders doesn't help. Then there's Ted Barstow, her friend and employee, whose memories of his own past with the Mormons complicate their relationship. But everything pales in the shadow of sudden tragedy, and Paula faces the bittersweet reality that sometimes the path to happiness is rocky and paved with heartache.

Secrets of the Heart is a powerful story by first-time author JoAnn Jolley. Its unforgettable characters and captivating story line make it one of the most memorable novels you will ever read.
