Fear had captured me. I entered into a room where I lost all control. This room was called fear, and I saw no exit sign. I could feel the room consume me, and the only comfort I found was in my tears. I thought it was the tears that released me, but it was the prayers I uttered in the mist of my tears. There was an exit, and the only way to see it was through Jesus. There's a Light is a book of two short stories that will expand your mind to believe that you cannot remain in darkness. This book illustrates in light verses the dark side of life.
