Harry Lee Poe

Every day, in colleges and universities all around the world, professors of everything from philosophy to geology offer their students a perspective on the world around them. According to Harry L. Poe, Christian professors must "join the conversation." They must not be afraid to teach their chosen subjects in a way that integrates and upholds a faith perspective. With Christianity in the Academy, Poe offers practical advice that will aid faculty in accomplishing this goal.

This book will be extremely helpful to Christian teachers at both Christian and secular schools as well as administrators and supporters of church-related colleges.
