This practical textbook and tool enables readers to evaluate programs and current thoughts regarding contemporary evangelism that will lead to the development of individual evangelism programs. This book attempts to model the way in which the insights of theologians, the observations of other disciplines, and the pulse of popular culture can be brought together to inform the bridge-builders, the baptized children of God, on ways of constructing the bridges over which they, as the Holy Spirit's agents, can bring the dying into new life in Christ.
