There is no shortage of religion in the world today, especially among Christians. Religion without the person of Christ is a mere tradition of our forefathers. What is the rule of thumb for examining ourselves? How do we know whether we are in the faith? And how do you prove yourself to be in the faith? The Bible says to “prove all things; hold fast that which is good” (1 Thessalonians 5:2). The information in Take Away This Cup From Me shared for the readers’ examination for the truthfulness of the context in the hope of unifying the body of Christ, will reveal a known lost revelation concerning the prayer that took place in the Garden of Gethsemane that Jesus offered up to the Father.
