"But the flickering light that seemed impossible to ignore still lingered through the cracks. It became clear that this was only a temporary moment of solace."

Candace

Safe, secure, and stable. The life I worked so hard to achieve. But why was I so unhappy?

I felt empty, lifeless, and lonely. Desperate for change. Anything to get me out of this boring routine I've trapped myself into.

Like they say: wish and you shall receive. I wanted change, and change is what I got.

After regaining consciousness, unable to see, surrounded by hostile voices discussing my fate — I knew change had finally come.

I just didn't imagine it to be like this.

Rainer

Friends and family? Got 'em. Love? Not interested. All I crave is vengeance.

There'll be no mercy once I get my hands on her. None! Especially after what she did.

If a war's what she wants, a war's what she'll get. No one crosses me or my crew. No one.

When I want something bad enough, there's no stopping me.

This isn't about how I'll find her, it's about when. And that time is now.

Disclaimer: RAINER is a standalone bad boy romance novel with no cliffhangers and a HEA ending. This novel is part of a vengeance themed series. The contents include graphic depictions of adult situations, strong language, and is intended for mature audiences only.
