A Serious Business Roderick Hart

It isn't planned, nothing he does ever is, but when Frank is burned out of his flat he ends up living where he works. A maintenance man in a large department store, this is easier for him than most, and everything might just have worked out if he'd told other people what he was doing, especially his girlfriend, Pamela. But he doesn't, and his secret life soon becomes a comedy of unintended consequences, the only thing he has in common with the ambitious but hot-tempered Preston Blair. Set in 2004, when analogue is giving way to digital and family-owned stores are losing out to the competition, this is the entertaining follow-up to Hart's previous title, Time to Talk.
