To Kill and Kill Again (Onyx True Crime ; Je 323) John Coston

The people of the idyllic town of Missoula, Montana liked baby-faced Wayne Nance. The friendly, familiar native son and furniture delivery man was considered so trustworthy that some of his customers just gave him the keys to their houses to make his deliveries easier. But would you give your keys to a serial killer? For 12 years Wayne Nance - the boy-next-door - was littering the beautiful Northwestern landscape with bodies, bodies he had brutally raped and murdered. This reign of extreme terror left eight corpses in its wake, and didn't end until the heartstopping showdown with two would-be victims who lived to tell all. This book recounts this story of a homicidal misfit who was able to fool the police and everyone who knew him, and documents one of the most exciting endings in true-crime history.
