Wisdom Seeds: reaping what love sowed Patrice Johnson

Danielle successful fulfills all the Preacher's Kid duties: Sunday School, Bible Study, Youth Ushers, Youth Choir, great student . . . but the Allen home is filled with pretense. The happy marriage of Reverend and Mrs. Allen is a façade, her brothers are prodigal sons and Danielle struggles with her faith as she enters into adulthood. Joy, love, happiness and peace became mere words that were mentioned in her father's sermons and in her grandmother's stories of the wisdom seeds. After Danielle is beguiled and left heart-broken, single and pregnant, life begins to water the spiritual truths planted by her grandmother. Sometimes it really is the smallest things that mean so much like words planted in a little girl's heart. Initially, they have no meaning. It is when they bloom that we understand and appreciate their significance. What seeds have been planted in your life?
