A fast, funny, action-packed camping adventure from one of Australia's most popular authors.

The friends and neighbors of Stella Street have found the perfect camping spot—miles of forest all around, a grassy clearing, and a swift-moving stream with a lovely swimming hole. Six parents, five kids, one neighbor, and a blissed-out dachshund explore, build camp fires, and skinny-dip. It's the kind of magical place where nothing bad could happen. Well, except for the shady loggers who try to cut down some old-growth trees. And the juvenile delinquent who follows them from the city. And a horrendous storm that washes out the road. And the very pregnant mom's chilling announcement: "I think it's time. . . ."
