Forgiveness is the greatest gift we are extended through salvation, easily given by our Lord and Savior. So, why is asking for forgiveness for our wrongdoing and forgiving others of theirs one of the most difficult struggles many of us face as believers? Life in Forgiveness, by Richard T. Case, exposes the hidden bondage that comes with choosing unforgiveness, while unveiling revelations of the freedom and joy that opening one's heart to forgive another brings. No matter the magnitude or devastation of the betrayal, hurt, or disappointment you've experienced, or even if you are the issuer of such offenses, this book will uncover the spiritual and emotional treasures you'll find in a heart fully submitted to God and a life lived in a state of forgiveness. Through Life in Forgiveness, you will learn the roots of bitterness, the difference between forgiveness and reconciliation, and be reminded of the undeniable link between our willingness to forgive and our relationship with God.
