The Longman Companion to the Stuart Age 1603-1714 (Longman Companions To History) John Wroughton

Provides comprehensive coverage of every aspect of the Stuart Age including political, religious and cultural developments as well as the English Civil Wars and colonial expansion. Particularly welcome is the detailed chronology of events in Scotland and Wales, an area so often neglected by historians. This is the successor volume to Rosemary O'Day's phenomenally successful Companion to the Tudor Age. It includes:
