Fiebre de amor (Dominique) (Spanish Edition) Eugène Fromentin

Ciertamente, no tengo por qué quejarme de que aquel cuyas confidencias referiré en el relato muy sencillo y muy poco novelesco que voy a hacer, porque, a Dios gracias, no soy ya nada, en el supuesto de que alguna vez fui algo, y a muchos ambiciosos les deseo que acaben de la misma manera. He encontrado la certidumbre y el reposo, que valen mucho más que todas las hipótesis. Me he puesto de acuerdo conmigo mismo, que cifro la mayor victoria que podemos lograr sobre lo imposible. En fin, de inútil para todos llego a ser útil para algunos, y he realizado en mi vida, que no podía dar nada de lo que de ella se esperaba, el único acto que, probablemente, no era esperado, un acto de modestia, de prudencia y de razón. No tengo, pues, por qué quejarme. Mi vida está hecha, y bien hecha, según mis deseos y mis méritos. Es rústica, lo cual no deja de cuadrarle bien: como los árboles de corto crecimiento la he cortado por la copa; tiene menos alcance y menos gracia, menos relieve; se la ve sólo de cerca, mas no por eso tendrá raíces someras ni dejará de proyectar más sombra en torno de ella.
