Do you love being on the water? Is holding a rod and reel one of your favorite outdoor activities? Outdoorsman and bestselling author Steve Chapman takes you to lakes, streams, rivers, and oceans to explore fishing and discover life-changing insights from God's Word. In these devotions about fishing for trout, bass, catfish, shark, and more, you'll discover: why pestering a water snake isn't such a good idea; how treble hooks turn into reminders to avoid sin; where to turn when angling becomes a temptation; how cleaning a shark reveals the joy of God's mercy and grace; and what unexpected truth is revealed when Jesus walked on water. Join Steve as he casts into the deep pools of God's wisdom to share life-altering insights, uplifting spiritual truths, and unabashed enthusiasm for living for Christ. You'll enjoy these adventures of being on the water with God, family, and friends.

Donna Muniz:

As a pupil exactly feel bored for you to reading. If their teacher requested them to go to the library as well as to make summary for some reserve, they are complained. Just very little students that has reading's internal or real their hobby. They just do what the teacher want, like asked to the library. They go to there but nothing reading critically. Any students feel that reading through is not important, boring as well as can't see colorful images on there. Yeah, it is to get complicated. Book is very important to suit your needs. As we know that on this era, many ways to get whatever we wish. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore , this A Look at Life from the Riverbank can make you sense more interested to read.
