Libri (Italian Edition) Giovanni Franceschi

Un romanzo storico, ambientato nel più alto Medioevo, che vede muoversi quattro personaggi principali e diverse figure di contorno, intorno all'amore per i libri antichi, che in quel periodo andarono, per la loro maggioranza, tragicamente perduti. Due dei protagonisti sono personaggi di fantasia, come i personaggi di contorno con qualche eccezione, mentre due sono veri personaggi storici di cui molto si sa, ma non tutto. Gli altri protagonisti, se così li possiamo chiamare, sono il mare, l'avventura, l'amore, la religione e, naturalmente, i libri.

E' un romanzo assai particolare, nel quale ci siamo permessi ogni tipo di libertà letteraria, da quella stilistica, per i toni di ballata o di poesia vera e propria che certe volte assume la nostra prosa, a quella del Narratore Onnipotente che non si perita ad entrare con proprie osservazioni nel racconto, contraddicendo così ogni regola del buon scrivere; dal discutere con il lettore fino all'uso di una punteggiatura personalizzata.

Ma non voglio anticipare troppo, anche se mi corre l'obbligo di avvertire chi comprerà questo romanzo, che si tratta sì di una divertente avventura, ma anche di un romanzo colto, che richiede un minimo di conoscenze storiche, per essere apprezzato e gustato.

A tutti i miei lettori...Buona Lettura!
