Movie Star's Baby Maker Tamara Adams

Cruise Matthews is the biggest movie star in the world. He's at the top of his game, starring in the biggest and best blockbuster films that come out each year. Hell, he even produces some of them. He's left a string of broken hearts behind. But he's missing one thing: a child to inherit his exceptional wealth. Kenya Jacobs is a good girl. Or at least, she's trying to be. Her roommate's constant partying is wearing her out while she works three jobs to help support her mother and six siblings back home. When she answers the ad for a lucrative personal assistant position to a major celebrity, she's not expecting to get the gig. Until the limo shows up outside her door. As Cruise's attorney explains the real reason for the three million dollar paycheck, Kenya squashed down her religious upbringing in favor of the practical: money. But can she resist Cruise when he demands more than just her body?
